Become a Friend of

WILSON BOTANIC PARK BERWICK

Who are the Friends?

The Friends of Wilson Botanic Park Berwick is an active community group formed to further the development of Wilson Botanic Park Berwick.

The Friends have been heavily involved in the development and operation of the Park since 1990, prior to the Park opening to the public in 1992.

The role of the Friends is to:

- ◆ Encourage appreciation of the natural environment and its value to the community.
- ◆ Assist and encourage development of the Park and make representation for its improvement.
- ◆ Conduct lectures, functions & activities associated with the Park (or related interests).
- ◆ Encourage preservation, research and study of the history and ecology of the Park.
- ◆ Assist with the general promotion of the Park.
- ◆ Contribute towards the day to day operations of the Park.

Opportunities for Friends

The Friends of Wilson Botanic Park Berwick offer a range of opportunities for you to become involved:

Working Bees - A regular working bee is held on the third Saturday of the month where a team work together to keep the Park looking beautiful.

Propagating Group – The Friends dedicate their time to propagate and grow plants for use in the Park or to sell at special events.

Visitor Information - Provide Park information and assistance to visitors.

Tour Guides - Conduct guided tours of the Park for clubs and social groups.

Event Volunteers - Assist with the planning of an event or provide assistance during special events held at the Park.

Organisation & Development - Take an active role on the Friends executive committee or one of the sub- committees.

Benefits of Membership

Friends of Wilson Botanic Park Berwick not only meet new people, including many with a keen interest in gardens, they also enjoy many benefits from their membership, including:

- ◆ Guest Speakers
- ◆ Social Activities
- ◆ Special 'Friends only' Events
- ◆ Botanical Advice & Information
- ◆ Monthly Friends' Day in the Park
- ◆ Quarterly Newsletter

Quarterly meetings and newsletters will keep you informed of what's happening in the Park, and how you may assist with some of the many wonderful projects or activities organised by the Friends. Supplying your email address will assist us in this.

Your involvement in contributing to such a community facility, will add an extra dimension to your enjoyment of the Park. You will find your participation in the Friends activities fulfilling in many ways.
